

I see the wind

1) Write three things that can be seen.

All of these are correct (only three must be written):

leaves, clothes, trees, flags, kites, clouds, wind

2) What are the leaves doing?

dancing by / dance by

---

3) What are the clouds doing?

floating by / float by

---

4) What are 'bending low'?

trees

---

5) Where do you think the clothes could be?

hanging in the garden on a washing line

---

---

6) Why do you think it says 'I see the wind 'most anywhere.'?

Because the wind is blowing everything around outside (or similar)

---

---

7) What else might you see blowing in the wind?

Write two more lines for the poem.

I see the wind when...

Any examples of things blowing in the wind.

---

I see the wind when...

Any examples of things blowing in the wind.

---

The Seasons

1) What are the four seasons?

spring

summer

autumn

winter

2) Which words describe autumn?

wheezy, sneezy, freezy

---

2) Find a word that rhymes with...

hoppy

croppy, poppy

---

slippy

drippy, nippy

---

showery

flowery, bowery

---

3) What does 'nippy' mean?

it is cold / there is a chill in the air

---

---

4) Why is winter described as slippery, drippy and nippy?

because in winter there is sometimes snow and ice which you could slip on and it drips as it melts. It is also cold, which is what nippy means.

---

Mr Sun

1) Where is Mr Sun hiding?

behind a tree

---

2) Which word is describing the sun?

golden

---

3) Can you find a word that rhymes with me?

tree

---

4) Why do the children want the sun to come out?

so that they can go outside and play

---

---

5) What might you do when Mr Sun comes out?

Answers may vary; anything that they might do outside in the sunshine is acceptable (e.g. go to the park, play in the garden, go in the paddling pool)

---

Doctor Foster

1) Where did Doctor Foster go?

Gloucester

---

2) What did he step in?

a puddle

---

3) What is the weather like in the rhyme?

it is raining

---

4) Why did Doctor Foster not go to Gloucester again?

Because he stepped into a puddle up to his middle which means he was very wet.

---